

ENZWEILER
BUILDING INSTITUTE

BECOME A FACILITIES MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

Facilities maintenance technicians are the backbone of building operations, ensuring that systems, structures, and equipment function smoothly and efficiently. At the Enzweiler Building Institute, we'll prepare you to take on this vital role with hands-on training and industry expertise.

WHY CHOOSE ENZWEILER?

-  Wages: the average wages for a facilities maintenance technician in Greater Cincinnati is $62,317 and increased 11% in the last 5 years according to glassdoor.com
-  Tailored Training: Focus on the skills you need, including plumbing, HVAC, electrical, carpentry (rough or finish), and general building systems maintenance.
-  Hands-On Experience: Train in a real-world environment with instruction from seasoned industry professionals.
-  Flexible and Affordable Education:
 - Use Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES) funds to lower tuition costs.
 - Access Veterans Administration (VA) benefits to support your education.
 - Take advantage of Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) funding to make your training even more accessible.

CONTACT US

-  (859) 331-9500
-  www.BuildingInstitute.com
-  admissions@BuildersNKY.com

Why Pursue a Career in Facilities Maintenance?

- High Demand: Facilities maintenance technicians are in demand across all industries.
- Competitive Pay: Skilled technicians enjoy strong earning potential and growth opportunities.
- Job Variety: Every day is different, with diverse tasks and challenges to keep you engaged.